YEAR IN REVIEW

On behalf of my family, the Leadership Team, Staff and Volunteers in Albania we want to wish you all a very Merry Christmas and trust that you will have the best New Year you have ever had. The Leadership team just got some pictures taken. Please pray for them.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year -
Year in Review

As we look back over the past year there are many things we could share but this time I thought we would just put on some pictures depicting some of these things. It is still not to late to give for 2016.

Some of the shoes and clothes given to children last Christmas. We are doing the same this year as well as giving them Food Bags and Christian Calendars.

Men's Ministry started to become more active this year.

Seniors Christmas Party and they had regular meetings throughout the year

Team from Pacific Academy in Surrey BC.

Ilir and our Seafarers Ministry, meeting the needs and sharing the gospel with people from around the world.

Our ANSWER to PRAYER is our new to us vehicle with our 3 main drivers.

World Race team came to minister in the various aspects of our needs. Here they are working on all the outside metal railings, scraping and painting.

Some of the Children's Bible School Grads in their traditional Albanian dress. They have gone into Grade one and carrying the message of Jesus with them.

Some of the boys meeting and playing in the youth area

Summer Camp. A time for fun, a time for crafts and a time to accept Jesus as their personal Saviour.

Pictures of Anniversary

8 more people baptized in water during the 20th Anniversary Celebrations.

House visits by the team

Children's Program put on by team Children doing crafts during the Program

In October we had 4 Benefit Concerts with Panfluteist Liselotte Rokyta and Organist Andre Knevel where we raised enough money to provide Christmas Food Bags for all those children who we were ministering to.

Then in November we had our 4th Love Albania banquet with Traycho and Ina from Bulgaria.
